

This project was designed around plastic shoe boxes that I picked up at Wal-Mart for $1 each. A product label for the containers can be found in the accompanying article to this build. Pre-drill and secure each horizontal piece with a wood screw. No glue is needed with this project.

